

Business Development Division Chain of Indicators

This chart shows the chain of indicators for each business and operation and how they create value, contribute to society, and are linked to materiality.

* Transportation companies, buses, taxis, car rental and leasing companies, and other businesses that operate a large number of vehicles for the purpose of moving people and goods.